(208) 947-5514 | laurie@tokcommercial.com

EXPERIENCE:

Laurie Reynoldson joined Thornton Oliver Keller in 2017 and specializes in office brokerage services. She works with business owners, property owners, developers and investors on property sales, leasing, site selection, acquisition and disposition of commercial real estate. She skillfully assists clients with marketing strategies, market analysis, contract review and transaction negotiations.

Prior to joining Thornton Oliver Keller, Laurie was a leasing manager with Hawkins Companies where she oversaw leasing activities in the company's national retail portfolio, including prospecting for new tenants to fill first- and second-generation space, and reviewing and negotiating lease transactions and agreements.

A former commercial real estate and development attorney, Laurie brings a unique skill set to the table in representing her clients. Not only is she well versed in the legal practicalities and framework of each deal, she has extensive experience in negotiating complex sales and leases, financing transactions, and land use and entitlements for development projects. Her clients benefit from her common sense and practical approach to each deal, attention to detail, deep market knowledge, and over 18 years of relevant legal experience.
