COMMERCIAL

EXPERIENCE

Blake joined TOK Commercial’s Eastern Idaho brokerage team in 2023, earning the Best of Greater Idaho Falls Silver Award in his first year of brokerage, following a successful professional career based in sales, operations and client-relationship management. Blake’s clients benefit significantly from his experience in all aspects of commercial brokerage - including, landlord, tenant, buyer and seller representation for projects ranging from land sales to office building lease-ups.

Mentored by some of the most accomplished and well-known commercial real estate minds in the western region of the U.S. and Idaho, he has built a strong foundation in commercial real estate. He has taken on a depth of knowledge from a discipline of different specialties, fields and industries throughout commercial real estate.

Blake values the opportunity to actively participate in the growth path for Eastern Idaho through his commercial real estate assignments and is excited to positively impact the community where he was born and raised.
