COMMERCIAL

EXPERIENCE

Danny Davis is a seasoned professional with a career spanning over 19 years in commercial real estate. His core values of integrity, diligence, and ethics underpin his approach to the industry. Danny is dedicated to delivering maximum value to his clientele, whether they are buyers, sellers, investors, business owners, or developers. He possesses a wealth of knowledge acquired through years of experience, enabling him to offer valuable insights into the Spokane and Kootenai County markets. He is licensed in both Idaho and Washington as Associate Broker.

One of Danny's key distinctions is his Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation, a testament to his expertise in the industry. Achieving this designation is no small feat, as it requires hundreds of hours of additional education, successful completion of rigorous exams, and a peer-reviewed portfolio showcasing transactions totaling at least $10,000,000. As a CCIM, Danny demonstrates a high level of skill and competence, making him a trusted authority in the commercial real estate sector.

What sets Danny apart is his unparalleled commitment to customer/client service, as he aims to be a genuine expert for his clients. He believes that real estate can be complex and that clients may have questions at any time. Danny is always ready and eager to provide guidance and support, ensuring that clients have access to his knowledge and insights whenever they need them. This client-centric approach distinguishes Danny as a trusted partner for anyone navigating the intricacies of commercial real estate.
